RICHARD KATZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:15-cv-01187

(MARIANI, J.)

(SAPORITO, M.J.)

FILED

ORDER

Per MJ

This matter is before the Court on the pro se plaintiff's motion to compel with respect to his first set of supplemental interrogatories to the defendants. (Doc. 91). In his motion papers, the plaintiff, Richard Katz, contends that the defendants' answers to his "Supplemental Interrogatories Number One" were "watered down, vague[,] and evasive." (Id. at 1). Katz seeks an order pursuant to Rule 37(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure compelling the defendants to answer these interrogatories to his satisfaction.

The defendants have filed a brief in opposition to the motion, accompanied by a complete set of Katz's interrogatories and the defendants' responses. (Doc. 96; Doc. 96-1; Doc. 96-2). Katz has filed a reply brief. (Doc. 97).

We have reviewed the motion papers and attached exhibits submitted by both sides. We find the defendants' answers and objections to be neither evasive nor incomplete. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(4). We find that the defendants have adequately answered all interrogatories before the Court in this motion. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(3)(B)(iii). The plaintiff's motion is without merit.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the plaintiff's motion to compel (Doc. 91) is DENIED. The parties shall bear their own costs incurred in connection with this motion, as an award of expenses to the defendants would be unjust in light of the plaintiff's indigence. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(5).
